Get to know them through
A Guide to Hispanic Organizations.

This comprehensive listing of national, state and regional organizations is a convenient resource for anyone wanting to know more about the groups that make up—and serve—Hispanic communities and interests around the U.S.

The Guide alphabetically lists 119 organizations involved in educational, political, professional, cultural, artistic, commercial and religious activities. You'll find addresses, telephone numbers, officers, meeting and convention plans, publications — everything you need to know to reach the leaders of America's Hispanic communities.

If you want to tap into this powerful network, the Guide is the place to start.
